The Cincinnati Office advised that papers and cards found in the possession of JOHN WILLIAM ANGLIN, CLARENCE ANGLIN and ALFRED RAY ANGLIN at the time of their arrest at Dayton, Ohio, on a charge of bank robbery disclosed the names of THOMAS H. WHITE, [REDACTED] Bonnell's Trailer Park, Pompano Beach, Florida, and [REDACTED]

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED] at Pompano Beach, Florida, to identify THOMAS H. WHITE:

A search of the current City Directories failed to disclose a trailer park known as Bonnell's Trailer Park; however, the 1958 City Directory of Pompano Beach, Florida, disclosed that Bonnell's Trailer Park was formerly located at 2571 North Federal Highway, Pompano Beach, Florida, and [REDACTED]. Subsequent City Directories disclosed that the Sailfish Trailer Park was located at 2571 North Federal Highway, Pompano Beach, Florida, [REDACTED]

On July 13, 1962, [REDACTED] advised that he recalled on THOMAS H. WHITE who formerly lived at the Sailfish Motel at the time it was known as Bonnell's Trailer Park. He advised that WHITE subsequently moved, at his request, and was last known to reside at the M and M Trailer Park, 5227 North Federal Highway, Pompano Beach, Florida.

[REDACTED] advised that he had never heard of the name ANGLIN and had no idea as to how his name and address could have gotten into the possession of any of the ANGLIN brothers.

[REDACTED] stated that while he was confined to [REDACTED] he was a cellmate of CLARENCE ANGLIN and was in close contact with him for several years. [REDACTED] stated that he counted very much that ANGLIN would make any attempt to contact him since he would not be accepted by ANGLIN or his class of criminals. He also mentioned that CLARENCE ANGLIN had made several escapes while at Raiford and one of these escapes was from a prison camp at Bartow, Florida.

Both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] advised that in the event CLARENCE ANGLIN or any of his associates made any attempt to contact them, they would immediately notify the FBI. They were advised of the provisions of the Harboring Statute.

He admitted he became fairly well acquainted with each following arrival. He [REDACTED] with him on numerous occasions extending over a period of a year or better. He knew CLARENCE ANGLIN least of all, but well enough to converse with frequently. He doubted he knew him well enough to enjoy his confidence. He advised he [REDACTED] for a period extending over several months.

[REDACTED] He stated FRANK MORRIS was [REDACTED] away on the same level and the ANGLIN brothers were in the same cell block but "on the flats." He further advised that from [REDACTED] he was assigned to another cell in the same block but farther from the escapees.

He denied having such a knowledge, but admitted at the same time that if he had known anything of such plans, he would not reveal the information. He denied on several occasions he had any information regarding the possible whereabouts of any Escapee or if any remark was ever made to him or in his presence regarding their proposed plan to escape or if anyone in the prison other than the Escapees and [REDACTED] had any knowledge of the break.

[REDACTED] said that she has not heard from [REDACTED] and has no idea what ever happened to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] She said at that time she was unable to furnish any information regarding MORRIS to [REDACTED]

WFO 76-2938

[REDACTED] b7C, b7D

[REDACTED] said that during her previous conversations with MORRIS he indicated most unhappy experiences in numerous foster homes at which he had been placed by welfare authorities and quite evidently was not fond of any of the people he had stayed with.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED] b7C

A review of the files of the New Orleans Office on June 13, 1962, reflected that FRANK LEE MORRIS, FBI #2157606, was subject of a New Orleans Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution investigation, NO File 88-1751, during 1955, based on escape from Louisiana State Penitentiary, Angola, Louisiana, April 29, 1955, where he was serving a ten-year sentence for possession of narcotics and armed robbery. He was accompanied in this escape by [REDACTED] b7C

[REDACTED] MORRIS and an [REDACTED] were arrested by the Terrebonne Parish Sheriff's Office, Houma, Louisiana, January 11, 1956, accompanied at that time by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. They were turned over to Federal Authorities and subsequently charged on January 13, 1956, with violation of Title 18, Section 2313, Bank Burglary, in New Orleans case entitled, [REDACTED]; ET AL; BANK OF SLIDELL, 11/25/55, BANK BURGLARY; ET AL," NO 91-860.

MORRIS was charged on January 27, 1956, in two-count indictment with violation of Bank Burglary Statutes and one count violation of the White Slave Traffic Act. MORRIS and [REDACTED] on September 19, 1956, entered a plea of guilty to a two-count indictment, Eastern District of Louisiana, New Orleans, Bank Burglary Sections, at which time MORRIS was sentenced to fourteen years on count one and five years on count two, to run consecutively. [REDACTED] was sentenced to ten years on count one, four years on count two, consecutively. [REDACTED] was last known to be in the Federal Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia, where he was transferred with MORRIS. [REDACTED] b7C

Subject MORRIS was investigated in 1945 and in 1951 in connection with Selective Service violations and on both occasions when interviewed he advised his parents died when he was eleven years of age. He claimed his father's name was [REDACTED] and believed his mother's name was [REDACTED] b7c

In 1945, he claimed only living relative was [REDACTED] who then purportedly resided in [REDACTED]. The Charlotte Division at that time conducted extensive investigation but were unable to locate or identify [REDACTED]. Several attempts made during these investigations to definitely establish a birth date for MORRIS and on December 1, 1955, the Washington Field Office determined through the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Washington, D. C., under Certificate of Birth No. 296351, that one FRANK MORRIS was born September 1, 1926, Gallinger Hospital, Washington, D. C. The Father was indicated as [REDACTED] the mother was indicated to be [REDACTED]

MORRIS was first incarcerated November 13, 1940, National Training School for Boys, based on commitment by District of Columbia Juvenile Court, sentenced to six years, nine months, eighteen days. He subsequently violated his parole and was remanded to the Federal Reformatory, Chillicothe, Ohio, January 22, 1943. He received November 19, 1944, at the Louisiana State Penitentiary, Angola, Louisiana, for a three-year term on burglary, discharged, July 12, 1948. He was received Florida State Penitentiary, Raiford, Florida, January 11, 1949, on four-year sentence for breaking and entering. He escaped on three or four occasions from that institution and presently owes time. He was received again at the Louisiana State Penitentiary, June 13, 1952, on a ten-year sentence, possession of narcotics and armed robbery. While incarcerated at the Orleans Parish Prison, New Orleans, Louisiana, on bank burglary charges, MORRIS was in solitary confinement. On January 11, 1956, he was discovered to have sawed through two bars by using a piece of copper tubing and concrete from the floor, used as an abrasive. He was subsequently charged with attempted escape and charge dismissed at the time of a guilty plea on bank burglary charge.

Experience of the New Orleans Division incident to looking for MORRIS was that all of his associates in the New Orleans area and throughout southeast were based upon his association with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] knows MORRIS to be erratic, potentially violent, daring and capable of any crime.

On June 13, 1962, [redacted] and [redacted] were advised of the fugitive status of subject MORRIS, who is better known to [redacted] as FRANK LYONS. [redacted]

On June 15, 1962, SA [redacted] advised [redacted] of the Louisiana State Penitentiary, Angola, Louisiana, of MORRIS's escape and at that time learned that [redacted] MORRIS's associate in the burglary of the Bank of Midell, was in the maximum security section of the Louisiana State Penitentiary and would remain there indefinitely. He indicated [redacted] continued to be non-communicative. He advised any information coming into his possession concerning MORRIS would be referred to the FBI.

On June 12, 1962, SA [redacted] contacted [redacted] New Orleans, who, in the absence of his father, [redacted] made available the file concerning MORRIS. The file in summary reflected that [redacted] was the client of [redacted] but he undertook the defense of FRANK LEE MORRIS and [redacted] along with [REDACTED] file reflected no information of pertinence concerning MORRIS and further reflected no correspondence with MORRIS. b7C b7D

On June 14, 1962, SA [REDACTED] contacted [REDACTED] who advised he had not heard from MORRIS since he pleaded guilty in Federal Court, Eastern District of Louisiana, in September, 1956, to bank burglary charges. He stated he felt it was possible that should MORRIS have actually escaped from Alcatraz he may attempt to contact [REDACTED]

He stated this was only a guess as [REDACTED] interest was primarily in her son and, if an associate of her son could not be of any help with respect to getting [REDACTED] out of jail, he questioned whether she would have anything to do with him. He cautioned, however, that interview with [REDACTED] was "a waste of time" as she has no use for law enforcement officers.

On June 12, 1962, [REDACTED] was advised of the fugitive status of MORRIS and the other subjects in this case and again advised of the close relationship between MORRIS and [REDACTED] of Slidell, Louisiana. b7C b7D

[REDACTED] He stated [REDACTED] has for many years been unfriendly and uncooperative; however, he would be alert to any strange cars or people at her place of residence and advise in the event anything of pertinence came to his attention. He was provided with photographs of subjects.

On June 20, 1962, [REDACTED] advised that he actually first met MORRIS in the late summer of 1955 when he was brought to his place of business. b7C b7D

[REDACTED] He stated he could be depended upon to advise the FBI in the event any information came to his attention concerning MORRIS or his two associates, CLARENCE ANGLIN and JOHN WILLIAM ANGLIN. Photographs of all of these subjects were shown to [REDACTED] and the provisions of the Harboring Statute were explained. b7C b7D

[REDACTED] was present during the course of interview and she, too, knows subject MORRIS and assured she would cooperate in trying to effect the apprehension of MORRIS and associates in the event that she should be contacted in her husband's absence.

[REDACTED] stated that on July 11, 1962, [REDACTED] was robbed a gun point at the Ade Sales Company; that [REDACTED] while at the U. S. Post Office on 43rd Street on July 30, 1962, had noticed a photograph of FRANK LEE MORRIS on an FBI Wanted Notice; that [REDACTED] thought the unknown gunman who robbed him on July 11, 1962, is possibly identical with MORRIS.

On July 30, 1962, SA [REDACTED] interviewed [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that about 11:45 a.m. on July 11, 1962, a man with an English accent about 50 years old with black hair turning gray, about six feet tall, entered the store and purchased a large transistor radio, which he paid $60.00 for. The man stated he purchases radios to sell to ships' crews and had bought radios from the Colony Radio Store, which is one block north on 8th Avenue. [REDACTED] stated this man complained because [REDACTED] would not deduct federal tax. The man placed the radio in a large blue airplane satchel and departed.

At approximately 11:55 a.m., or almost immediately, a man entered the store and inquired as to where the large "Sony radio" that was in the window had gone. When [REDACTED] told him he had sold it, the man asked to look at a small pocket transistor radio of Japanese make called ABC. The man stepped to the end of the counter located at the farther end of the store and looked at the radio.

[REDACTED] stated the man then drew a small black hand gun, which [REDACTED] could not identify as an automatic pistol or a revolver, from his right trouser pocket and commanded [REDACTED] to go into the toilet, situated just to the rear of the counter, and to stay there for five minutes. When [REDACTED] came out of the toilet, which had no windows and only one door, he observed that the $60.00 which he had received from the previous customer had been taken from the cigar box on the top of the counter, also 12 "Sony" transistor radios which were in a carton on the store floor, as well as the small radio he was looking at.

[REDACTED] stated when he left the toilet, he immediately stepped onto the street to call a policeman and observed that a crowd had gathered for the reason that a man had suffered a heart attack. [REDACTED] stated that the traffic officer on the corner of 42nd Street and 8th Avenue had gone into the bank next door to make a telephone call at the request of the bank manager instead of using the telephone in his store, or the officer would have entered the store about the time he was being robbed. b7c b7D

[REDACTED] He further stated he believed he had seen the man who robbed him in the store on at least two previous occasions.

[REDACTED] described the man who robbed him as approximately 5'5" tall, rather stocky, weight about 130 to 140 pounds, dark wavy hair, about 30 years old, wearing a white short-sleeve shirt and light gray trousers. He stated this individual was wearing dark wrap-around glasses fitting close to the cheek bone and he could not describe the color of his eyes.

[REDACTED] was exhibited photographs of all the fugitives in this case, and he picked out the photograph of Subject FRANK LEE MORRIS and stated MORRIS resembled the man who robbed him, although the more he looked at the photograph, the less sure he was of a strong resemblance to MORRIS.

[REDACTED] stated he did not note any particular accent used by the robber and did not note any tattoos on his hands while he was examining the radio at the counter.

On July 31, 1962, photographs of all three fugitives in this case were exhibited to [REDACTED] and she stated she had never observed anyone resembling any of them in the store. b7c b7D

[REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] on July 31, 1962, that he remembered the occasion of the man having the heart attack in front of 671 8th Avenue and [REDACTED] reporting the robbery. He was exhibited photographs of all three Subjects in this case and advised he had not observed anyone fitting the description of them in the vicinity of the [REDACTED] store or near his post.

On the same date, [REDACTED] advised he does not remember any individual with an English accent who purchases radios to sell to seamen fitting the description of the man with the English accent coming to that store.

 RE: ALCOS

ReBuairtel to San Francisco dated 8/20/62 requesting summary of results of investigation re allegations made by [REDACTED] and San Francisco airtel to the Director dated 8/22/62.

On 8/23/62, Warden OLIN G. BLACKWELL, U. S.
 Penitentiary, Alcatraz, discussed with [REDACTED] his insubordination in failing to comply with prison regulations as to standing at the front of his cell for inmate count.
 [REDACTED] together with Subjects [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] has been placed in the Treatment Unit open front individual cells since their involvement in the escape plot was discovered.
 After [REDACTED] insubordination recently he was placed in the Treatment Unit closed front individual cell section.

[REDACTED] has been very belligerent, and told Warden BLACKWELL that he would not discuss the escape attempt or the charges he had made concerning [REDACTED] referred to as [REDACTED] or [REDACTED].
 He even refused to tell Warden BLACKWELL whether the story he had told as to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] was true or not.
 [REDACTED] also refused to discuss this matter with anyone and told Warden BLACKWELL he did not desire to be contacted concerning it.

[REDACTED] according to Warden BLACKWELL, appears to becoming more psychotic each day and is extremely belligerent.
 BLACKWELL states that he believes that [REDACTED] merely invented the most recent story neglecting to fill in the details under the belief that such a story might obtain [REDACTED] immediate transfer to another institution as an inducement for him to furnish further details. b7C

BLACKWELL stated that he solicited [redacted] details by telling him that if any of the guards or employees at that institution were in any way involved in assisting these individuals to escape, that he, BLACKWELL, felt they should be prosecuted to the extent of the law. He told [redacted] that if he had any such information, he should immediately furnish this information to Warden BLACKWELL or if he did not desire to do so but desired to furnish same to SA [redacted] with whom he had previously conversed, BLACKWELL would make such arrangements. [redacted] was belligerent and would not discuss the matter. BLACKWELL believes that [redacted] now realizes he is not going to be transferred because of his alleged knowledge and [redacted] therefore, sees no percentage in furnishing what is probably the figment of his imagination.

On 8/27/62, [redacted] and [redacted] were interviewed by Agents of the San Francisco Office. b7C b7D

[redacted] advised that he had little contact with the ANGLIN brothers, MORRIS or [redacted] since they had never been assigned to any of his work details. He stated that he had never seen any of these individuals making dummy faces or, in fact, any type of equipment which could be utilized in an escape. He said they had never propositioned him to an escape or even indicated their desire to do so.

[redacted] advised that as [redacted] he took tools and equipment into the institution but that every tool was accounted for each day by the prison guard as he left the main cell block. His tools and equipment were never allowed to remain in the cell block overnight. [redacted] stated there was continuous work patching and repairing the walls throughout the main cell block and that cement was naturally used therein. It would be no great problem over b7C b7D a period of time for an inmate to remove part of the casing for later use.

As to the use of any of his plumbing tools, which include electric drills, the various four inmate plumbers assigned to assist him in the major overhaul of the plumbing system in the main cell block utilized this various equipment. At all times this equipment is being utilized by the inmates or one of the prison guards is in constant attendance. [REDACTED] indicated that no one had ever propositioned him as to an escape and he was greatly surprised when he heard that inmates had successfully escaped from the main cell block.

Both of these officers when interviewed were extremely cooperative and immediately furnished any and all answers to questions propounded to them.

In view of the fact that none of the information furnished by [REDACTED] relative to these recent allegations has indicated the truth of such allegations, this aspect of the investigation will not be pursued further unless or until [REDACTED] furnishes complete details.

The complete investigation relative to this matter will be furnished in a subsequent report.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (76-26295)

DATE: August 23, 1962

FROM : SAC, ATLANTA (76-2246)

SUBJECT: ALCOS

Re Bureau letter to Atlanta dated August 2, 1962, and Atlanta letter to Bureau dated August 8, 1962.

Referenced Bureau letter pointed out the report of SA [redacted] at Atlanta, Georgia, dated July 26, 1962; failed to set forth appropriate caution statement. Explanations and recommendations were requested.

Enclosed are copies of a memorandum of explanation from SA [redacted] in which he states that his failure to add a caution statement to his report was "an inadvertence and is regretted."

Supervisor [redacted] who approved this report, advised that he through an oversight also failed to detect the omission. In this connection, SA [redacted] is Supervisor of the Number Four Squad in the Atlanta Division. His mail is extremely heavy and I do not consider it necessary for him to minutely examine every piece of outgoing mail to insure that omissions of this nature are included. Basic responsibility for errors of this type is that of the Agent to whom the case is assigned. In addition, this case is well known to all Agents through office memoranda, Identification Orders and Wanted Flyers, and the Agents are well aware of the armed and dangerous character of the subjects. Furthermore, SA [redacted] report was disseminated only to the Bureau and the San Francisco Office, the office of origin. As office of origin, San Francisco is, of course, well aware of the armed and dangerous character of the subjects.

SA [redacted] and Supervisor [redacted] have been admonished by me for this error, and they have been instructed to use more caution in the future to insure that omissions of this nature are not repeated.

Form errors have been scored against both SA [REDACTED] and Supervisor [REDACTED] and no additional administrative action is recommended. b7C b7D a Referenced Bureau letter also pointed out that the code name should not be utilized on the FD 204 in SA [REDACTED] report. The FD 204 in SA [REDACTED] report has been corrected to reflect the names of the subjects and the armed and dangerous character of the subjects has also been added to the report.

ALL SUBJECTS ARE CONVICTED BANK ROBBERS AND SHOULD BE CONSIDERED EXTREMELY DANGEROUS.

ADDENDUM OF SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION [REDACTED]

8/29/62

SA [REDACTED] Atlanta, Georgia, submitted b7C a report dated July 28, 1962, and failed to set forth the appropriate caution statement. The error was detected at the Bureau and explanations and recommendations requested.
SA [REDACTED] advises that omission of the caution statement was an inadvertence. SAC, Atlanta, notes that report went only to the Bureau and office of origin, both of whom were well aware of the dangerousness of the subjects. SA [REDACTED] and the Supervisor approving the report have been admonished by the SAC and form errors scored against them. SAC recommends no further administrative action.

In view of the fact that the report contains no leads, went only to the office of origin and the Bureau, and the fact that subjects are identification order fugitives whereby all offices are aware of their dangerousness, the Special Investigative Division recommends no additional administrative action.

He stated he could not describe the clothing worn by the person he believes is CLARENCE ANGLIN.

[redacted] stated that on returning to Dodge City, he observed the subject's photographs in the June 22, 1962, issue of Time Magazine, and that as a result of observing the photographs in the magazine, believes that the individuals he observed at Greensburg, as well as Bucklin, Kansas, are identical with the subjects.

Re Mobile airtel to Atlanta, 9/4/62, a copy of which is attached for the information of the Bureau.

It is noted that the attached airtel contains information furnished by [redacted] an inmate of the Houston County Jail, Dothan, Alabama. [redacted] who contacted our Mobile Office indicating that [redacted] wanted the conference with an FBI Agent, has stated that he is skeptical of [redacted] information in that [redacted] appears to be a "psycho."

It is noted that [redacted] when interviewed admits having been committed to a mental institution and also as to receiving three years group therapy for a mental condition while in the U. S. Penitentiary at Atlanta. Even though it appears that the source of the information is of questionable reliability, investigation is being conducted to ascertain same. This office has sent a communication to the Atlanta Office directing that they immediately resolve this issue. The Bureau will be advised of the results.

SUBJECT: ALCOS

The following investigation was conducted 9/3/62
at Dothan, Ala., by SA [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] was desirous of being contacted by an FBI Agent as he had information as to the present whereabouts of the escapees from Alcatraz, namely, FRANK LEE MORRIS, JOHN ANGLIN and CLARENCE ANGLIN. [REDACTED] stated he is skeptical of [REDACTED] information and pointed out that [REDACTED] appears to be some sort of a "psycho."

When interviewed at the Houston County Jail, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised that in 1959 or 1960 he was on the baseball team with FRANK LEE MORRIS at the Federal Penitentiary, Atlanta, Ga. [REDACTED] and said thereafter he read in the newspaper of the escape of the three subjects in this matter from Alcatraz.

a telephone call from an unnamed individual and as he was not at the residence, the caller did not leave a message with his mother. Subsequently the same day [REDACTED] b7C b7D

[REDACTED] and further, whom he had known at the Federal Penitentiary, Atlanta, who advised [REDACTED] if [REDACTED] could obtain a suitable legitimate residence to be used as a hideout then [REDACTED] could pick up about $5,000. [REDACTED] stated that some people, number not stated, needed the hideout and [REDACTED] was too hot to provide same, so he was requesting [REDACTED] assistance. [REDACTED] informed [REDACTED] he would see what he could do and to contact him later. About a week or ten days later, which would be around 7/5/62 [REDACTED] and subject FRANK LEE MORRIS came to [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] black 1959 Lincoln. [REDACTED] stated that also present at this time was [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated positively it was FRANK LEE MORRIS, and identified a photograph of MORRIS as the person who accompanied [REDACTED] to the residence as stated above. [REDACTED] stated his mother and possibly his step father would be able to identify MORRIS as being in the residence around 7/5/62.

[REDACTED] directed them to a fish camp out of Warrenville, S. C., directions given as follows:

[REDACTED] instructed them to stay there until he could contact them. About a week later, around 7/12/62 [REDACTED] went to this cabin, where he saw [REDACTED] MORRIS, subject JOHN ANGLIN and another individual, whose face he did not see, but whom he presumed was subject CLARENCE ANGLIN, and he also saw the same black 1959 Lincoln. After a short conversation MORRIS gave [REDACTED] $150 to rent a place in the country, with the instructions that [REDACTED] should contact MORRIS later for the rest of the $5,000.

[REDACTED] stated he became afraid of this group, so he decided to keep the $150. but he called up another associate, one [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advising [REDACTED] he was going to Alabama to look for a hideout and that he would subsequently notify [REDACTED] in order that he could contact [REDACTED] and the subjects.

2 After arriving in Alabama, he secured a place to stay in care of [REDACTED] and shortly thereafter he was arrested by the Houston County authorities in connection with the theft of an automobile.

[REDACTED] stated he hurt his back and had to go to the Cobb Memorial Hospital, Phenix City, Ala., for treatment, where he was confined from 8/12 to 23/62, and while there he contacted [REDACTED] to inform he had found a place in Alabama and to notify subjects. In addition, he instructed [REDACTED] to advise them he was in trouble and needed someone to get him out on bond. [REDACTED] stated around 1:00 or 2:00 a.m., Monday, 8/20/62, subject MORRIS and [REDACTED] came to visit him briefly at Cobb Memorial Hospital and advised they would send a bondsman to get him out of jail. He has not heard from them since that time. [REDACTED] stated another patient was in the same room at the hospital who possibly would be able to verify his story.

[REDACTED] admitted he had been committed to a mental hospital in Columbia, S. C., for 30 days sometime in the past, but was released; and also he took three years group therapy for a mental condition while in the U. S. Penitentiary in Atlanta.

At the conclusion of the interview, [REDACTED] also stated he believes an associate of [REDACTED] was one of the individuals who met the subjects and gave them assistance after they reached the mainland at the time of their escape. [REDACTED] could not furnish any additional information regarding the associate of [REDACTED]

Atlanta at College Park, Ga., will exhibit photo of FRANK LEE MORRIS to [REDACTED] to determine if they can identify as the individual who was at their residence to visit [REDACTED] in July 1962, as set out by [REDACTED] above.

MOBILE: AT DOTHAN, ALABAMA

Will re-interview [REDACTED] at Houston County Jail in order to identify the young ex-con who contacted him in April or May of 1962.

Will ascertain from [REDACTED] the name of the individual who reportedly owns a late model dark car and who is the person who allegedly drove him from Columbia to Fairview, S. C. b7C

Ascertain from [REDACTED] if this is the same individual who drove a 1959 Mercury as mentioned in a telephone conversation between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

SAVANNAH: AT FAIRVIEW, SOUTH CAROLINA (NEAR WAGNER)

Will locate and interview [REDACTED] and exhibit photograph of FRANK LEE MORRIS in an effort to identify the unknown subject who reportedly drove [REDACTED] from Columbia to Fairview, S. C., in July or early August of 1962.

AT AIKEN, SOUTH CAROLINA

Conduct the investigation near Aiken, S. C., involving a lake and a cabin as described in referenced airtel as a fish camp near Warrenville, S. Even though [REDACTED] own mother admits that he is a mental case, it is felt that San Francisco as origin desires this possible lead checked out in an effort to locate subjects.

Savannah, however, should keep in mind that [REDACTED] was reared in or near Warrenville, S. C., by [REDACTED] who now reside at Batesburg and naturally he would be familiar with the country around Warrenville.

Investigation at Milwaukee, Wisconsin

[REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] on June 12, 1962, that he has not maintained correspondence with FRANK LEE MORRIS since two years prior to Christmas of 1961. At that time MORRIS sent him a Christmas card from prison, but [REDACTED] had wanted to terminate his correspondence with MORRIS and did not reply. b7c b7D

[REDACTED] stated he had met MORRIS in Louisiana in 1958 and wanted to help MORRIS since he liked him. He communicated with Florida authorities in an effort to get them to drop charges against MORRIS. MORRIS requested Atlanta prison authority to write to him, and they communicated fairly regularly after that. MORRIS' letters were on a standard form supplied by the prison. MORRIS had never mentioned escape, but he is the type of person who accomplishes what he tries.

[REDACTED] said he knew none of MORRIS' friends but did think MORRIS would contact him if still alive. He is aware that aiding MORRIS would be a crime, and he advised that he would contact the FBI should he hear from MORRIS. b7c b7D

[REDACTED] stated that he had no such intention and informed the warden that the call must have been made as a joke or out of spite.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised that he is of the opinion that MORRIS, if he has escaped, will eventually attempt to contact him since [REDACTED] and considers [REDACTED] a good friend. [REDACTED] had stopped aiding MORRIS in having charges against him dropped in Florida and Louisiana since MORRIS would only commit further crimes if released from prison.

MI 76-886

[REDACTED] stated that MORRIS is aware only of his old address at [REDACTED] and does not know his present location. b7C b7D
